1. Access your research with links to resources such as Court Opinions, Dockets, and News.

2. Stay organized with Workspaces. Invite your study group, share research, upload documents, and take notes. Manage your workflow with Research Trail, Downloads, and Saved Searches & Alerts.

3. Access content and tools in easily organized tabs. Quickly find what you need from case law, statutes, and secondary content, to news and company information.

4. Jump-start your research with the <GO> Bar, which allows you to search Barron’s Law Dictionary, cases, companies, and people.

5. View upcoming Bloomberg Law® events and register for trainings.

6. Find contact information for your Bloomberg Law academic representatives.

7. Enhance your resume and become an expert on Bloomberg Law with our certification program.

8. Explore resources hand-selected to best suit your varied research needs.

9. Use the Queue to store your research results until you decide how you want to organize your documents. View your Queue offline in the Bloomberg Law app.

10. Go to Casebriefs to review case briefs, class outlines, and more.

11. Keep current on professional development resources and career research materials.

12. See law school news headlines, follow Bloomberg Law’s Twitter feed, and read recent articles from The United States Law Week®.

Need Assistance?
24/7 Help Desk & Live Chat
888.560.2529
blawhelp@bna.com
www.bloomberglaw.com

Stay Connected
#BloombergLaw
@BloombergLaw
FIND A CASE ON BLOOMBERG LAW

Use the <GO> Bar
- Have a citation? Enter it and then click Citation Search.
- Have a case name? Enter the parties separated by and, then select Court Opinions by Case Name.
- Want to view a frequently cited case? Start typing the case name or citation, and cases related to your search will appear under Most Cited Court Opinions.
- Only have terms? Type in keywords with search operators (such as or and and) and click All Legal Content then filter by Court Opinions.

Use Search & Browse
- Choose Court Opinions under Specialized Searches, then use fields such as Case Name, Party Name, Court, and Judge for targeted results.
- Select a particular jurisdiction or run your search over all Court Opinions.
- Enter keywords and search operators to search any combination of legal sources under the All Legal Content Search.

CHECK YOUR CASE WITH BCITE™

- Is your case still good law? Use our citator, BCite, to be confident your case is on point. Click on the Direct History and Case Analysis tabs at the top of a case to review the treatment of your case by other courts. Filters like Court and Date make it easy to zero in on what you need.

- Need additional relevant cases and other legal materials? Use keywords to search for relevant issues across the results on the Citing Documents tab, and choose a Content Type filter to narrow your results.
- Want updates? Choose Create Citation Alert on the Citing Documents tab to receive an email when your case is cited in subsequent cases, secondary sources, and more.

RESEARCH STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

- Want to search specifically for legislation or regulations? Access the Legislative Search or Regulatory Search through the Legislative & Regulatory (Search & Browse) menu.
- Need to research case law that discusses a federal statute? Use the Case Analysis tab listed at the top of each section of the U.S. Code.

- Have the name of a federal act? Type it into the <GO> Bar and choose a Popular Names Table Lookup entry.
- Need the latest? Use the Legislative Resources or Regulatory Resources page to find out about important topics and access relevant news.

LEARN FROM TRUSTED SECONDARY SOURCES AND NEWS

- Need more to get started? Secondary legal sources help you learn an area of law that is unfamiliar to you. Find secondary materials throughout Bloomberg Law, including under the Legal Analysis & News menu; in the <GO> Bar, by typing in keywords, hitting Enter on your keyboard, and narrowing your results by content type; and in Practice Centers. Among the sources are over 100 Bloomberg BNA Law Reports on a wide variety of topics.

- Want the rest of the picture? Stay current with over 50,000 news sources, especially when you set an Alert. Use the News Search (under the Legal Analysis & News and Search & Browse menus) with fields such as Companies, People, Topics, Regions, Industries, and Sources.

GET UP TO SPEED ON TRANSACTIONAL LAW

- Have an agreement to draft? Use the Transactional Resources page to find document descriptions and drafting guides.
- Want example language? Use the DealMaker Document Search and DealMaker Clause Search to find helpful examples.

- Need more background on a company? Use the EDGAR Search to find relevant SEC filings. Plus, access Company Profiles by running a search for a company name directly from the <GO> Bar and choosing a profile from Suggested Companies.

PREPARE FOR LITIGATION WITH DOCKETS

- Unsure how to draft a complaint or motion? Use Docket Search to run searches for relevant litigation materials. Narrow your research with fields including Courts, Keywords, Docket Number, and Name and Role.

- Curious about the latest cases? Breaking Complaints gives you fast access to key complaints in various jurisdictions.
- Want to be among the first to know what happens next? Explore docket updating, alerting, and tracking.

KEEP YOUR RESEARCH ORGANIZED

- Want to annotate your research? Add your own notes to materials, including opinions, statutes, and news stories, with Notepad in the right sidebar of documents on Bloomberg Law.
- Need to find your research? Access the last six months of your research through Research Trail in the black bar at the top of every page.

- Have a study group? Organize your research in Workspaces that can be shared with other students and professors at your law school. You also can upload your outlines and other files.